MANY VESSELS COME AND GO

The arrival and departure of four deep-sea sailing vessels yesterday gave the harbor a busy appearance. The first arrival was the barkentine S. N. Castle which made her appearance off port early in the morning and came up to the Irrigard wharf at about half past seven where she is discharging a general cargo of hay, grain and merchandise consigned to W. G. Irwin and Company. At 8:15 the American ship Charmer, Captain Slater, dropped anchor in the stream, eighty-five days from Newcastle with a cargo of 2270 tons of coal for the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company. Her captain reports variable winds and foulness of her bottom prevented fast time. The Charmer will go alongside Sorenson's wharf this morning and will begin to discharge about Monday. The bark Andrew Welch sailed from Sorenson's wharf at 1:25 p. m. for San Francisco with a cargo of sugar. She was advertised to sail at 10 o'clock this morning but as no passengers were booked she was sent out yesterday. The other departure was the bark Annie Johnson which got away from the Oceanic wharf at 3:45 with 27,710 bags of sugar and thirty tons of merchandise for San Francisco. She carried six passengers. The Annie Johnson is a fast sailer holding the sailing record from San Francisco to Honolulu, eight days sixteen hours. It is a source of satisfaction that all these vessels fly the American flags.

HER RECORD OF DISASTER LONG

The American bark Abby Palmer, Captain Johnson, which left Seattle June 14, has arrived at Kaanapali with a cargo of coal consigned to Hackfeld & Co. It is doubtful whether any craft afloat has had so much ill luck as she. This is her first voyage since the memorable one she made in northern waters about a year ago when her decks were swept clear of every mast and spar, her gunwales smashed and her deckhouses crushed in. Abandoned then by her crew she yet survived and is now as good as ever. Previously to this adventure the Palmer had a little brush with one of the big Empress liners of the Canadian Pacific Company on Puget Sound in which she was rammed and had to be repaired at a cost of some thirty thousand dollars. One would think that was a sufficient record of mishaps but it was only a few years before this accident that the vessel turned turtle in San Francisco harbor entailing a great loss. Some good spirit, however, seems to keep the Abby Palmer on the top side of the deep sea.

May Go to Anahola.
Captain Burnham, superintendent of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, was a passenger to Kauai on the Mikahala Thursday night. He was accompanied by C. P. Morse, local agent of the company and Colonel Z. S. Spalding, proprietor of the Makee Sugar Co. Their visit has been taken to mean that the A.-H. line is contemplating making Anahola a port of call by many of the local shipping men. Masters of the Inter-Island steamers do not consider the roadstead safe but Col. Spalding thinks otherwise and is anxious to ship his sugar direct.
